Acts

2: 42 - 47

⁴² They devoted themselves to the apostles' teaching and to fellowship, to the breaking of bread and to prayer.

⁴³ Everyone was filled with awe at the many wonders and signs performed by the apostles.

⁴⁴ All the believers were together and had everything in common.

⁴⁵ They sold property and possessions to give to anyone who had need.

⁴⁶ Every day they continued to meet together in the temple courts. They broke bread in their homes and ate together with glad and sincere hearts, ⁴⁷ praising God and enjoying the favour of all the people.

And the Lord added to their number daily those who were being saved.

that Jesus began to do and to teach
Acts 1:1

Acts 4

Sadducees, were filled with jealousy. They arrested the apostles and put them in the public jail. But during the night an angel of the Lord opened the doors of the jail and brought them out.

“Go, stand in the temple courts,” he said, “and tell the people all about this new life.”

On arriving at the jail, the officers did not find them there. So they went back and reported, the captain of the temple guard and the chief priests were at a loss, wondering what this might lead to.
