A composite image consisting of a 3x3 grid of nine rectangular panels. The central panel shows a silhouette of a person sitting on a log or bench, looking towards the right. To the right of the person is a large, dark silhouette of a tree with many branches. The background is a light, hazy blue. The other panels in the grid show different parts of the scene: the top-left panel shows a close-up of tree branches; the top-middle panel shows more of the tree's canopy; the top-right panel shows the upper part of the tree trunk and branches; the bottom-left panel shows a close-up of a textured surface, possibly a wall or ground; the bottom-middle panel shows the lower part of the person and the ground; the bottom-right panel shows the lower part of the tree trunk and the ground. The entire image has a dark, almost black border.

A promotional image for the TV series 'The Last Kingdom'. It features a man with long brown hair and a goatee, wearing a dark tunic with a sword on his back. The sword has a distinctive golden pommel and a dark, segmented hilt. The background is dark and out of focus, suggesting an outdoor setting. The text 'THE LAST KINGDOM' is overlaid in the upper center. A quote, 'Destiny is all.', is written in a cursive font on the right side. Below the quote, the name 'UHTRED' is written in a bold, sans-serif font, and 'ELISHA' is written in a larger, bold, sans-serif font, with a red diagonal line striking through the 'UHTRED' text.

1 Kings 19:19 - 21

<sup>19</sup> Elijah left Mount Horeb. He saw Elisha, the son of Shaphat. Elisha was ploughing in a field. He was driving the last of 12 pairs of oxen. Elijah went up to him. He threw his coat around him.

“Let me kiss my father and mother goodbye,” he said. “Then I’ll come with you.”

“Go back,” Elijah replied. “What have I done to you?”

<sup>21</sup> So Elisha left him and went back. He got his two oxen and killed them. He burned the plough to cook the meat. He gave it to the people, and they ate it. Then he started to follow Elijah. He became Elijah’s servant.
